The Viking Outpost Philosophy

We, at Viking Outposts are dedicated to giving you, the customer, the kind of attention that we would expect as a guest. We feel we need to land a plane at your camp at least 2 times a week to ensure your safety, comfort and to ensure that all camp facilities are in good working order. We feel it important to cater to your need of extra supplies of food, beverages, ice and forgotten items. This is what we would enjoy as a camp guest.
